

Calendar of Events 13 - 17 November

“All Equal, All Different, All Together”

Mon 13 November

Northern Ireland Anti-Bullying Forum

Launch of Anti-Bullying Week
2017 Northern Ireland

- Introducing ABW17
- VIP children and young people competition winners receiving prizes from VIP guests
- Showcasing new resources

Venue: Belfast City Hall
10.00 - 13.00

Cara- Friend

Cara-Friend Youth Forum are inviting young people from all communities to come together to discuss the topic of bullying.

Venue: LGBT Centre, Belfast
18.30 - 20.00

Contact:
declan.meehan@cara-friend.org.uk

Tue 14 November

Northern Ireland Council for Integrated Education

All Staff Workshop on raising awareness of Anti-Bullying Work.

Communities in Dialogue Events on Tackling Racist Bullying with pupils, parents, schools and communities.

Venue: NICIE
11.00 - 12.00

Contact:
pmcilwaine@nicie.org.uk

Voice of Young People in Care

“Houses of Empathy”

Launch of a European project which addresses bullying behaviours in children’s residential care settings.

Venue: Play Resource Centre
14.00-16.00

Contact: alicia.toal@voypic.org

Wed 15 November

Stranmillis University Belfast

Anti-Bullying Resource Seminar for Student Teachers

A lunchtime showcase event to celebrate the resources and videos that Stranmillis students produced for ABW17 under leadership of Dr Noel Purdy.

Lunch will be provided.

Venue: Stranmillis University College - 13.00 - 14.00

Contact: g.watson@stran.ac.uk

Cara- Friend

Cara-Friend Youth Forum are inviting young people from all communities to come together to discuss the topic of bullying.

Venue: Foyle LGBT Centre
18.30 - 20.00

Contact
declan.meehan@cara-friend.org.uk

Thu 16 November

Cara- Friend

Launch “Still Shouting” Report

Cara-Friend will highlight the increased difficulties faced by LGBT young people in schools in Northern Ireland in respect of bullying and mental health.

Lunch will be provided.

Venue: Youth Action NI, Belfast
12.30 - 14.00

Contact:
declan.meehan@cara-friend.org.uk

Fri 17 November

National Children’s Bureau

Effective Responses to Bullying Behaviour

Big Lottery LINKS and Engage grant holders will explore:

- definition of bullying
- responding effectively to bullying
- new legislation
- sharing good practice

Venue: Play Resource Centre
10.00 - 13.00

Contact: jtowers@ncb.org.uk

Social Media - Look out for the Toolkit!

#antibullyingweekni & #allequalalldifferentalltogether

We’re encouraging everyone to think about how they can work together to promote kindness, respect and celebrate difference

Calendar of Events 13 - 17 November

“All Equal, All Different, All Together”

Throughout the week

Education Authority

The EA are releasing a special program through C2K Newsdesk on what is bullying and what bullying means to children in schools across Northern Ireland

Equality Commission for Northern Ireland

ECNI outline their draft recommendations about tackling bullying in their Equality in Education paper

Safeguarding Board for Northern Ireland

SBNI will host a short video on their website with NIABF Coordinator highlighting Anti-Bullying Week in Northern Ireland

The Fostering Network

Blog on supporting foster carers when their foster children are affected by bullying behaviours

Northern Ireland Assembly Education Service

Education and Information on the Addressing Bullying in Schools (NI) Act 2016 to school pupils with vlogs and opinions from pupils on the topic of bullying

An tÁisaonad at St Mary's University

An tÁisaonad have translated an anti-bullying resource featuring a child with autism who has experienced bullying behaviours. The resource is available by registering for ABW17 and on C2K

Northern Ireland Commissioner for Children and Young People Youth Panel

NICCY Youth Panel have created a video to explain what bullying means to them and their peers

